~ Obituary ~

Kenneth A. Warren, affectionately known as Jr. was born on January 8, 1977 to the parents of Kenneth A. Warren and Denise Brown. Kenneth accepted Christ in his life as a young adult.

Kenneth attended Hercules Elementary School and Pinole Valley High School. His plans were to become a very successful barber, longshoreman and a loving father.

Kenneth was a loving son, he made it a point that he and his mom talk every day which was a very accurate reflection of the special bond Kenneth and his mom had. Kenneth was a fine, loving, respectable and outgoing gentleman, more commonly known to his friends as Jr., Ken, Kenny or Frog. Whenever Kenneth came into the room, he lifted everyone's spirit with his smile and corny jokes that only he would laugh at. Although they were corny, everyone still remembered his jokes. Kenneth's respect for others, integrity, mannerism, and welcoming smile attracted people into his life.

Kenneth had a special love in his heart for his mother, grandparents, siblings and especially his children, he was a father from the heart and was deeply devoted to them. Kenneth loved his family and friends unconditionally he also loved his life and everything it had to offer him. Sports were another thing that he loved, he was an avid Raiders fan. Kenneth enjoyed hanging with friends, traveling and spending quality time with his family. Even when Kenneth broke off a relationship with his female friends, he still remained friends with them and was always within reach during good times or bad never to turn his back on anyone. He loved people and was a true gentleman, always trying to see who was cooking and what would be on the menu. Kenneth got his swag, mannerisms from his grandfather James Brown. Just like his grandpa, he took pride in dressing up and standing out. He loved his "green" coordination and taking great pride in his cars, vans and fishing.

Kenneth had many role models in his life. He had several aunts who help raise him to be the perfect son any mother would love to have. His parents and grandparents loved him and taught spiritual and basic life training that groomed him to be a handsome young man with lots of love in his heart, absent of crime, respected in the community and within his social group. He touched the lives of many throughout the city. Kenneth was never the same, always changing and constantly growing as a person.

Kenneth was called home to be with his Heavenly Father on January 26, 2012. His final days were spent with those whom he touched in many ways throughout his life.

He was preceded in death by his father Kenneth Warren Sr., grandfather James Brown, and sister Krystal Jones.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his mother Denise Brown., step-father, Leonard Johnson (2) sons, Kenneth Warren III, Armaunte Warren; (3) daughters Ashley, Amaya, and Dymon Warren (5) sisters, Kristina Jones, Breana Johnson, Bridgett Warren, Kalah Jonson, and Keisha Warren; (3) brothers, Tommy Jones, Jalen Johnson, and Keenan Warren. Grandmother Elizabeth Brown, and a special uncle Don Warren (3) nieces, Aniaya Woods, Akeelah Jackson and Jeziyah Cleveland; (1) nephew, Nahir Warren and a host of aunts, uncles, other relatives, friends. Co-workers and a special friend Lamont Reed.

Acknowledgment

*Perhaps you made a comforting call or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a card or dish of food; If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much.
Whatever the part, may God bless you.*

To All My Loved Ones

Having enjoyment in your life is priceless.

Why do we search for these things when their right there beside you.

This is what we call a Blessing.

Living Life Blessed.

Sometimes it takes to have something small affect your life to bring out the outmost best in you.

Its like being that close to the light seeing the end near then losing sight and then regaining your strength as you open your journey is over.

The thought of seeing the end near the breathe air you take in the energy you gain must say Thank You Lord.

For He is Priceless.

*Love You
Kenneth (Jr.)*

*These Are My Own Words
"Keep It Moving"*

Words from his mother

No words can explain the loss I feel. I thank God for the 35 years he gave you to me. I'm glad I raised you to be the man you've become and that we spoke almost everyday on the phone.

*Love You Always
Your Mom*
